

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 18, 1984

Dear Bill:

Once again you have demonstrated extraordinary skill in coordinating the many activities and bilaterals associated with my appearance before the United Nations General Assembly. Indeed, the entire week was an important one for U.S. foreign policy, and your draft of my radio address summarizing the UNGA, IMF/World Bank and Gromyko meetings was particularly helpful.

Bill, again my congratulations and special thanks.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Ronald Reagan". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.

Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
