

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

6 September 2012

Dear Mr. Martin,

I would like to thank you for your contributions to the University for Peace over the last eight years as a member of the Council, including your tenure as President of the Council of the University during 2006 and 2007.

The University for Peace, as an institution that promotes learning, training and research in areas central to the mandates of the United Nations and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, continues to make an important contribution to our ongoing quest for peace in the world.

I am grateful to you for your long-standing dedication and service, and I wish you well in your future endeavours.

Yours sincerely,

BAN/Ki-moon

The Honorable William Flynn Martin
Havre de Grace